

FOR IT IS MY LAND AND YOUR LAND

WORDS & MUSIC BY JOY MILLS

PUBLISHED BY
G. C. MILLS
SCARSDALE, N.Y.

For It Is My Land And Your Land

Words & Music
By JOY MILLS

Intro: Marcia.

pf pp rit. pf ff

Voice

slowly express

From bor - der to bor - der from lakes to the sea The call went forth To
From bbr - der to hor - der from lakes to the sea The lan - sies are pray -

Arms! To Arms! There is drum - ing and drill - ing and march - ing to - day For the dar - ing brave lads who sailed a - ing way For all the daunt - less lads It be - gins at the call of - way To fight for vic - to - ry Dark and drear is the dawn since the bu - gle With the sun on the earths wide rim And the they have gone Nor is the noon - day ev - er fair For the heart of the great Re - pub - lic Is beat - ing a bat - tle hymn, — loy - al hearts wait - ing till the lads come back from "O - ver There!" —

Chorus. Marcia.

For it is my land and your land no mat - ter whether right or

pf

wrong — Our foe men or trait - ors we'll fight a hundred mil - lion strong And this shall

p

be our name in stor - y We fought for home for love for glo - ry

rit.

Free - dom God and right. For it is right.

very slow tempo pf ff

